You'll notice three added "comfort-features" in the Crosset "Doctor" Shoe, which give you greatest help in preventing and correcting fallen arches.

- (1) The extended heel. This heel extends on one side underneath your instep and helps to take away the strain from your arch. The bottom of the heel is slightly raised. This tends to "lift" your arch gradually back into the correct standing position.
- (2) The curved "waist." This "waist" is the part of the shoe which covers your arch. It is made of soft, flexible leather as is to allow perfect freedom to your arch muscles. It is shaped to foot-form so as to hold your arch firmly in the correct position.
- (3) The inside sole. This is scientifically built to form a perfect rest for your foot. Its special shape not only relieves your arch of strain but it also helps to keep the bones of your arch in place.

The Crosset "Doctor" Shoe is the perfected shoe for preventing and correcting arch troubles. Like the other Crosset Shoes—it is famous for its comfort features. It has received the highest approval from some of the leading orthopedic doctors in Massachusetts.

MADISON LINES UP FOR GA. RAILROAD CHANGES

Two Additional Fast Trains Would Be of Untold Benefit

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MADISON, Ga., April 2.—Since it was learned that trains 3 and 4 would stop at Madison citizens of this city are lining up enthusiastically behind the proposed changes on the Georgia railroad schedules. The two extra fast trains will mean much for Madison and the section.

Paul M. Atkinson, representative and experienced chamber of commerce thinks the changes are just the thing. Lee Traubman, prominent banker and merchant, says he believes the proposed new schedules are the best ever yet contemplated.

A. G. Foster, solicitor of the city court of Madison, is heartily in favor of these changes.

C. M. Farley, secretary of the chamber of commerce, insurance man and editor of the Madisonian, is delighted and people are practically unanimous for the proposed changes, especially since Mr. Wickensham has given assurance that Madison will be a stop for all trains on the Georgia.

This is an important point as connections are made with the four passenger trains on the Macon and Athens division of the Central.

Atlanta Girl Scores Big Hit in Production For College Benefit

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
BOSTON, Mass., April 2.—"Beau Brummel," by Clyde Fitch, as produced by the Junior class of Wellesley college, in the New Court theater, head of the rebuilding fund, scored a distinct hit. From the time the curtain first went up until the final encore scene, the interest in the play was tense. It seemed to many people in the large audience that a company of professional actors of high histrionic attainment producing the comedy instead of a group of third-year college girls. To Miss Tracy (Laurie) at Ponce de Leon avenue, Atlanta, Ga., was given the opportunity to perform "Beau Brummel," which she did with the skill of a master. Others who were applauded were the ballads, Misses Rachel Davis and Rowena Nye; Marianna Vincent, Louise Tawster; the prices of Walter, Edgardo Jones; Oliver Vincent, Johnnie Fierick; the duchess of Leominster, Miss Margaret Garde.

FOR PERSONS Who Wish to Take No Risk With Their Money

The 6 per cent guaranteed and also profit sharing bonds of the Atlanta Development company offer safety—a guaranteed fixed income, and large earning possibilities beyond the guarantee of 6 per cent.

They are secured by state of Georgia bonds as a sinking fund, dollar for dollar at maturity, and also backed by choice Atlanta real estate 5 to 1. The money received from the sale of bonds goes back into improvements on the property behind the bonds. Thus increasing the security and as this property is sold, the profits are distributed from time to time among the bond holders. It is the only way to deal in Atlanta's real estate, and have your capital secured against loss—receive a fixed income and also get the benefit of the profits made in this line of business. These bonds are earning 20 per cent. The investors in real estate here are commencing to realize the great advantages offered through these bonds. It will pay you to drop the company a card. They will mail you a booklet with full particulars. Their office is 1403 1/2 Third National Bank building.—(Adv.)

Cleveland Plans to Provide Building for Federal Reserve Bank

(By Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 3.—A movement was started here today to provide a building for Cleveland's new federal reserve bank as a part of the proposed group plan of public buildings here. Speculation was rife today as to the membership of the governing board of the new bank. Bankers and business men seemed loath to allow their name to be used as membership of the board will necessitate severing all banking relations and would mean a sacrifice of salary, it was stated.

M. R. WILKINSON PRAISES WORK OF WALTER COOPER

Much Credit Due Secretary for Share in Regional Bank Fight

Mr. R. Wilkinson, president of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, says that much credit is due to Walter G. Cooper, secretary of the chamber, for his share in the tedious work of getting up statistics for use in the campaign for the regional bank for Atlanta. In order to satisfactorily present Atlanta's right to the bank, it was necessary to work up a great mass of figures showing the financial, industrial and commercial importance of the city, and Mr. Cooper did this work on these statistics, which were afterwards used to such admirable advantage in presenting Atlanta's claim for the bank.

The advance work done by Mr. Cooper in compiling valuable statistics and facts to be placed before the bank committee was the most valuable asset we had in presenting our claims," said Mr. Wilkinson Friday. "The amount of labor involved in getting up this statement was stupendous. Mr. Cooper went at it with his whole heart and thought at that time he was not a well man, kept doggedly at the task until it was completed."

"His work showed the most comprehensive statement of facts, figures and statistics that I have ever seen. He was the wheelhorse and a power in our attack. Too much credit can not be given him because I doubt if there are really many outside of those intimately associated with him who know what a potent factor Mr. Cooper was in helping to win for the city one of the federal reserve banks. Because of this and his great work, it is a pleasure for me to commend him and let others know where a large share of the credit belongs."

INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST THE CITY

A temporary injunction restraining the city of Atlanta from selling 312 feet of the Georgia Railway and Power company's tracks on Flat Shoals avenue, was granted Thursday afternoon by Judge George L. Bell of the superior court. The city had given public notice that this portion of the railway's right of way was to be sold to satisfy a $14,000 debt of the tracks for payment of 20 cents a foot for a line of sewer pipes recently installed. The company is supposed to own the land nearest to the pipes, while the city therefore assessed. When the money was not paid, the company's right of way was advertised for sale.

Judge Bell set April 10 for a hearing of the case to determine whether or not the restraining order shall be made a permanent one or shall be dismissed. Counsel for the city filed the injunction for the railway company.

GIRL LOSES FIGHT FOR HALF OF $15,000,000

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, April 3.—The appellate division of the state supreme court today decided against Florence Louise Brandt, in her attempt to establish that she is the legally adopted daughter of the late William Seigler. Miss Brandt claims one-half of the $15,000,000 estate left by Seigler, the bulk of which went to William Seigler, Jr., an adopted son.

Atlanta and Georgia Chambers Congratulate Senator Hoke Smith

Both the Atlanta chamber of commerce and the Georgia chamber of commerce have sent congratulatory telegrams to Senator Hoke Smith, crediting him with the feat of winning a federal reserve bank for Atlanta and the southeast.

Through Secretary Walter G. Cooper, the Atlanta chamber sent the following telegram Thursday night immediately after the four o'clock extra telling of the victory reached the street:

"Now that Atlanta has been awarded a regional bank, allow me to again thank you personally in behalf of the chamber of commerce for the great work you have done for Atlanta and the southeast in this matter. President Wilson also sends his thanks and congratulations."

(Signed) "W. G. COOPER, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce."

President Charles J. Haden, of the state chamber, wired the Atlanta chamber Friday morning. The telegram follows:

"Let us thank you for the able efforts of yourself and other Georgia representatives in getting the regional bank. It was a great victory."

(Signed) "CHARLES J. HADEN, President, Georgia Chamber of Commerce."

WILSON IS INDORSED

ON REPEAL OF TOLLS

A resolution indorsing President Wilson's stand on the repeal of free canal tolls for American coastwise vessels was unanimously adopted by the Fulton county Democratic executive committee at its meeting Friday.

The resolution was introduced jointly by Albert Howell, Jr., Louis Choussat and Albert D. Thomas and J. G. Johnson. It read as follows:

Whereas, There is now pending before the congress of the United States a bill to repeal free tolls for American coastwise vessels, and Whereas, Free tolls are nothing but a species of subsidy to the ships of the shipping trust, against all the principles and interests of the Democratic party.

Therefore be it resolved by the Fulton county Democratic executive committee, That we indorse the position of the president of the United States bringing the repeal of the toll levies, issued by a Republican administration; and be it resolved, That this committee learns with much pleasure that the congressional delegation from Georgia stood solidly for the repeal of this bill when voted on in the house of representatives, and whereas we also learn through the press that the two senators from Georgia have announced their intention to support the president in the fight to repeal this bill.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the representatives from the Fifth district and to the senators from Georgia.

FORBIDS SINGLE-BLITTING.
The committee passed a special resolution calling the attention of candidates and voters who participate in the county primary on May 5 to the long standing rule of the committee, which will be rigidly enforced, prohibiting them from single-blotting for certain candidates where more than one vacancy is to be filled. The rule is that such a vote is to be thrown out, insofar as it is a particular office is concerned. This means that the voters must cast their ballot for three members of the Fulton county board of commissioners, and that if a voter casts his ballot for only one county commissioner, it will be counted as no good. For the managers will throw it out. The vote will count, however, for the candidates for other offices where only one vacancy is to be filled if the voter properly marked his ballot.

The resolution by Albert D. Thomas, outlined in Thursday's Journal, calling on Fulton county's representative in the legislature to introduce a bill at the next session providing for the submission to the people of an amendment to the state constitution whereby two-thirds of those voting in a municipal bond election may authorize the issuance of bonds, was unanimously adopted. The resolution set forth that the present constitutional provision requiring two-thirds of the entire registration to authorize the issuance of bonds was put in the constitution for a particular purpose, that it has served its purpose, and has now become an extreme hardship on municipalities, especially those of large population.

The committee took no action with reference to postponing the date of the county primary from May 2 to May 25, in order to allow more time for a campaign of education for state bonds, which it was proposed a few days ago to submit to the voters of Atlanta on this postponed date.

FAMILY IS FORCED TO JUMP TO ESCAPE FIRE

James Bearden Catches Children as Wife Tosses Them From Windows of Home

James E. Bearden and five members of his family were forced to jump from the second floor of his home, 215 North Avenue, when a fire broke out in the kitchen at 9 o'clock on Thursday night.

The fire, which is believed to have been caused by a defective wire started at the ceiling of roof. All members of the family escaped safely, but the fire had gained considerable headway, and then Blanche Bearden, aged seven years, was awakened by the crackling flames. She rushed to the back door, and then Bearden jumped from a bed room window and Mrs. Bearden dropped the children out of the window and he caught them. They jumped. The drop was only about fifteen feet, as the house was a one-story structure.

The Bearden residence was destroyed, and the flames did considerable damage to the residence of Mrs. Dula, on the corner of 215 North Avenue. The total damage will amount to $5,000, according to the police.

Members of the Bearden family left their burning building in their night clothes and were sheltered during the evening by neighbors. Nothing was saved.

GENERAL BARRY GOES TO PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

(By Associated Press.)—Major General Thomas H. Barry arrived in Manila yesterday. He will assume command of the Philippine division. He is accompanied by General C. Franklin Bell, who will sail on the 15th for the United States by way of Spain and Europe. General Bell probably will take command of the central department and join the troops at Texas City next fall.

FRIENDS OF W. C. VEREEN WANT HIM FOR GOVERNOR

Delegation Here to Watch Developments at Executive Committee Meet Saturday

Colonel Z. H. Clark, of Moultrie, a member of Governor Statton's staff, in the city with a delegation of friends of W. C. Vereen, of Moultrie, for the meeting of the state Democratic executive committee tomorrow. Other friends of Mr. Vereen will reach Atlanta Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Vereen has made no statement determined to place him in the race for governor, in the event Governor Statton makes the race for Governor Statton's staff.

Mr. Vereen has made no statement concerning such a prospective candidacy," said Colonel Clark, but his friends in southwest Georgia are determined to place him in the race for governor in the event the situation develops in accordance with our expectations.

"The only statement Mr. Vereen has authorized is that he will not run for the United States senate. Whether Governor Statton runs for the senate or not, he has stated he will not be in the senate race."

"But his friends from all sections of the state have made up their minds definitely and positively as to what they propose to do, and if Mr. Statton runs for the senate we shall certainly insist on Mr. Vereen's making the race for governor."

COOLER WEATHER IS IN PROSPECT FOR SATURDAY

Sun Will Be Shining, However, According to Forecaster's Predictions

Cooler weather Saturday with light frosts in the low places Friday night. In the middle of the week, however, Saturday will be a fine, fair day, however, and there are no indications of a lower temperature than 45 degrees.

Early Friday morning the mercury stood at 50 degrees, and the forecast predicts a drop of 5 degrees for Saturday morning. The mercury will probably last all day.

Dispatched from Washington, Friday morning, April 3.—Major General Thomas H. Barry arrived in Manila yesterday. He will assume command of the Philippine division. He is accompanied by General C. Franklin Bell, who will sail on the 15th for the United States by way of Spain and Europe. General Bell probably will take command of the central department and join the troops at Texas City next fall.

THEATERS

The most delightful musical play of the entire year is now at the Atlanta. It is "Adele" and the critics and public alike have as to its appeal and interest. The music is far away better than any heard here in many seasons in a play of this character, while the comedy is all that could be asked. Those who come back from New York during the play declare this the better company. The music is rendered by an orchestra of fifteen and the attendance has been most excellent.

Tonight's indications point to the largest house of the week with an excellent forecast—a big matinee Saturday. The last performance will be given Saturday night. Those who like a real comedy and who like the real music will miss the year of this kind. It is also the best dressed show of the season, the costumes being little less than wonderful.

An acceptable bill of vaudeville has recorded one of the "biggest" weeks of attendance in the history of the theatre. It has stimulated more interest in vaudeville than any offering that can be intelligently recalled. This situation is a magnificent argument in favor of the declaration that this style of entertainment is fast getting a secure grip on all classes of theatergoers. The demand for seats for the remaining four performances is greater than has ever been registered.

The La Salle LaSalle company, fifteen strong, not including the scenic and stage departments, will arrive in Atlanta tomorrow.

BE SURE IT'S THE "AUBURN HAIR GIRL"

She Represents Parisian Sage, An Invigorating Tonic. Quickly Removes Dandruff.

You can use nothing better than Parisian Sage to make the scalp cool, fluffy and abundant. It stops itching, head, cleanses, cools and invigorates the scalp and removes dandruff with one application.

If your hair is getting thin, or is harsh, dull and lifeless, do not despair—follow the example of others whose hair you admire—give it daily attention. A thorough brushing and frequent applications of Parisian Sage will rub into the scalp will do wonders.

If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Rubbing the scalp with Parisian Sage and dandruff disappears.

If your hair splits, dries, brittle and thin, soften it up, make it grow. Surely use Parisian Sage—it supplies the hair and scalp needs. It is faintly perfumed and free from grease and stickiness. Parisian Sage really does make the head feel fine—the scalp perfectly healthy and gives the hair an inviolable gloss and beauty you desire.

The Girl with the Auburn Hair is on every 50-cent bottle. Sold by Jacob's Pharmacies and at drug and toilet counters everywhere. Try it now—you will surely like Parisian Sage.

SKIN ERUPTIONS

Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition.

When the blood becomes thin, poor, devitalized nature craves more such external evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most beneficial remedy we know is Vinol.

This because it is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal curative element—liver oil (without the oil and tonic liver oil) and the blood-purifying, purifier and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mrs. Helen Wingate, of Loma, Mo., says: "I was in very poor health, nervous and run-down, and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good until my druggist recommended Vinol. I built up my health, restored strength and I feel that I owe my life to Vinol. I cannot praise it too highly."

So say positively there is nothing Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case we will return your money. Write for free Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. Write for free Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people.

AFTER SICKNESS OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to repair the wasted body and restore the vigor of health.

For forty years the best physicians have relied on the wholesome, predigestion, nourishment in SCOTT'S EMULSION which is totally free from alcohol or opiates.

Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright.

Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health. Its purity, richness and strength has stood the test of forty years.

It Is Very Interesting and Convincing and Will Encourage Thousands of Others

Here is the remarkable results obtained by Mr. D. H. Brantley, 161 Forsyth street, this city from the use of the wonderful Quaker Extract. So here it is. He said:

"I am 28 years old. And have lived here all my life, and my friends and neighbors know how I suffered for several years from a dreadful case of stomach and liver troubles. It seemed no matter what I ate, it would not agree with me. Everything I ate on my stomach and caused gas to form. This gas would distress me terribly, and I was unable to sleep. In breathing, I was unable to breathe. I was often these attacks would also come during the night. In the morning I would usually awake with a dull headache and general tired feeling. My tongue was very heavily coated and my head bad. One day I was told to give Quaker Extract a trial. I did so. I bought a 50-cent bottle of Quaker Extract from a drug store. At first I felt discouraged as when the remedy seemed to have no effect on me at all. But as time was getting clear, I noticed that my tongue was getting better and my head was better and I felt more refreshed in the morning. Gradually the gas stopped forming and, oh, what a relief this was. And thus I have been better. I ventured to eat some boiled cabbage, a thing I had not dared to do for years. At this time I realized that my stomach was strong and healthy again. Since then I have been eating anything served to me at home. I thank Quaker Extract for my life. If you suffer from stomach, liver, or kidney troubles, you should call at Courser & Munroe's drug store, 23 Marietta street, and obtain Quaker Extract for $2.50, 5 for $2.50. Or of balance, a bottle, 5 for $1.00. We reserve the right to change on all orders of $2.50 or over. So do not delay your purchase today.—(Adv.)

SCHOOL BOOK PROBE ON

INQUIRY ON THE COST OF STATE'S SCHOOL BOOKS

Chairman Reads Reports on Prices of Publishing in Many Other States

The legislative investigating committee, which was appointed last summer at the instance of Representative C. R. McCrory, of Shelby county, to inquire into the cost of publishing school books, met Friday morning at the capitol to receive reports and examine witnesses.

M. L. Brittain, chairman of the committee, presenting a report showing comparative costs of the required basal school books used in the grades below the high school in twenty-two states which have uniform text books adoption and in California, where the state publishes its own text books.

Mr. McCrory submitted letters from the states which, he said, indicated that the cost of publishing the text books in this state was not as high as in other states.

As the cost of books in Ontario, Canada, figured largely in the discussion of cheaper text books, Mr. Brittain secured figures on the Ontario prices. He found that the cost there is $2.25, but there is no fifth reader, no text in agriculture nor in civics; only one arithmetic, one grammar, one geography, two histories, one spelling and five copy books. In addition to this the government furnishes the publisher the manuscript and plates for the books.

Mr. Brittain read a letter from a Canadian publisher in which he offered to publish the Georgia text books at a cost about one-fourth lower than the present figures, provided the state will furnish the manuscript and plates as does the Canadian publisher. Mr. Brittain said that while on the face of it the cost was lower, he believed in the end the total would be greater if the state had to furnish manuscripts and plates.

CALL WITNESSES.

At the suggestion of Mr. McCrory the following witnesses were called before the committee:

Representative J. E. Sheppard, of America; H. S. Bowden, of Blakeley; I. H. V. Beck, of Rowden; H. Moon, of Lafayette; J. C. Harris, of Rome and Thomas E. Watson, of Thomson and L. L. McCall, of Macon, were also called but were not present.

The members of the investigating committee are C. R. McCrory, of Ellaville; W. J. Nunnally, of Rome; H. C. Shugrue, of Savannah; J. P. Peyton, of Mount Airy; A. P. Foster, of Connelton, all of the house of representatives, and M. L. Brittain, of Atlanta; Dr. T. F. Wootter, of Athens, and Dr. G. H. Glenn, of Dalton, members of the state board of education.

Mr. Watson, who is a publisher in Toronto, Canada, appeared before the committee upon the invitation of Dr. I. A. Brannan, state agent of the American Book company. He went into a detailed explanation of the book publishing system in Ontario, declaring it was the result of the policy and that two of the reasons why the text-books of that province are supplied cheaper than those in the United States was because the government furnishes the manuscripts and plates and because the contracts for publication are let to his department stores and other concerns which use them as methods of advertising.

Mr. McCrory who questioned Mr. Watson at some length and strenuously objected to his remarks being included in the record, also offered a number of objections to the minutes of the previous meeting of the investigating committee. Those objections were in the main leveled at Chairman Brittain's report, which was adopted as evidence to be presented in the committee's report to the legislature, is as follows:

Misses' $7.50 Raincoats $5.00
Misses' $5.00 Raincoats $3.25

A raincoat in April is a very useful garment. That one can be bought right at the beginning of the month of showers at a fine saving is an opportunity.

Some thirty in this sale—it would not be unwise to secure yours early in the day.

Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years.

Rubberized fabrics, cemented seams, collars button close about the neck or fold back and lay flat; cut full large and long. Choose from navy, tan and gray.

A Worthy Display of the New Plaid Skirts For Misses

The vogue of plaid skirts is pronounced. It bids fair to become a rage as the season advances. The reason is not hard to find—once a young woman has seen the skirts that we have gathered this spring.

Bold, colorful plaids, faintly outlined plaids, smart shepherd checks, superbly tailored and fashioned. Indeed, the lines of skirts this season are one of the notable style points in women's apparel. Tiered and flounced and ruffled—some even have the tiers of another material than that of the rest of the skirt.

These we invite you to see are priced at $5.00 to $7.50.

The Infants' Wear Section Is Filled With the Prettiest Things We Could Find For the Baby

Here a mother may fit the little dear out from the tip of his pink toes to his chubby head. Varieties are great—it is a section that is meant to be of service to the mother who does not have to count costs; to the mother whose little one is quite as dear to her but who must limit her expenditures. Prettiest things at every price.

Bootees 20c to $1.50.

Long and short dresses 50c to $10.00, machine made and fixed ever so daintily with lace and fine embroideries as the prices mount.

Hand-made long and short dresses $1.50 to $20.00. Every stitch done by the patient fingers of a woman. Some of the daintiest hand embroidery we have seen is worked on the finer dresses on the little yokes and even on the hems.

Machine made caps 50c to $3.50, hand-made caps $1.50 to $5.00. Those at 50c are simple little Swiss affairs embroidered trimmed; then come the ribbon bedecked and lace caps—little picture frames for rosy cheeks.

Bonnets $1.25 to $7.50. Swisses and lawns at the lower prices, finished with "baby" embroideries, then come the lace bonnets—up to the allover Venise lace bonnets at $7.50.

Flannel Underskirts, machine made long and short, 50c to $2.00. The hand-embroidered flannel skirts are $2 to $5.

Arnold Knit Goods in complete varieties, vests, bands, sleeping garments, bath aprons.

Trinkets of celluloid, brush and comb sets, carriage straps, coat hangers, talcum box, rubber toys, hot water bottles, record books, rattles.

Trimmed and untrimmed baskets, hampers, bassinets, 75c to $25.00.

Coats for Tots

Cool days of spring made comfortable for the little folks by attractive coats.

Sizes one to six years.

Piques, machine made and hand embroidered; novel little silk coats and serges and ratines and shepherd checks; belted styles, plain straight styles and blousy styles, with crushed satin girdles.

A great choice, with the prices going from $2.00 for a simple pique coat to $15.00 for the finest silk.

New Kimonos for Children

The new spring kimonos are ready.

Sizes two to six years.

Crepes by the score—colorful, odd patterns; just what the young girl will like; priced at 75c to $1.25.

In sizes six to sixteen years are many novelties in lawns and crepes; light and dark colors that may be washed without hurt—these at $1.25 to $3.00.

Those of rich silks, in misses' sizes only, are $3.50 to $12.50.

A Clearaway in the Corset Section

$15 to $35 Corsets at $7.50 $10 to $12.50 Corsets at $3.50

Because certain very fine corsets of exquisite brocaded silk, batiste and suedine, and very best boning are not fashioned in the style that we deem best this season we have reduced their prices in the most drastic manner.

They are from makers who turn out only the highest grade corsets; among them are a number of Lily of France Corsets.

Medium and low busts, medium length over the hips. The tremendous reduction is not justified by the worth of the corsets, for, with a slight alteration that we are prepared to make, these may be made into a corset that is of style of the moment.

And, so the saving on a faultless corset!

New $2.50 Corsets at $1.49 New $1.50 Corsets at 98c

A specially fortunate purchase makes this opportunity for you. The corsets are of the moment. Both prices bring models of coutil, with very low bust, long, boneless hips, six hose supporters; embroidery trimmed, the difference between the two is the quality of materials and the boning.

BATTLE IN PRIZE RINGFATAL TO JIMMY GRANT

Boy Who Collapsed After Fight With Knockout Eggers Died Friday Morning

In the quiet hours of daybreak Friday, Jimmy Grant died at the Grady hospital. It was 4 o'clock in the morning when the little fighter breathed his last. Only one man was with him at the time, Dr. L. C. Roughlin, who has attended him since he was first stricken. Jimmy Grant never regained consciousness. From the moment he collapsed in the corner of the ring at the Olympic theater after his fight with Johnny Eggers Tuesday night, the darkness never lifted. He was 19, a super 135 hours until death came.

Phlebotomy was the cause of his death, stated Dr. Roughlin and Dr. W. S. Goldsmith. The boy probably was overtrained when he entered the ring. The shock of the ten rounds of fighting brought the illness to a head and his system was unable to react.

There were no marks of bruises on his body and while he may have suffered from brain concussion, pneumonia, indirectly caused by the fight with Eggers, was the real cause of his death. Eggers, who was arrested immediately after the fight and charged with disorderly conduct, is out on $500 bond. Chief Beavers stated Friday morning that the charge against Eggers would not be changed until he was arraigned before Judge Brydges Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There will be no coroner's inquest as there were plenty of eye-witnesses to the fight. The police court hearing will probably end in Eggers being bound over for involuntary manslaughter, to await trial in the courts.

Grant's body has been removed to H. M. Patterson's undertaking establishment. It will be held there until word has been received from his mother and father in Chicago.

In Chicago Jimmy Grant was born and grew there nearly all his life. There he first took up the ring game, contributing his earnings to the support of his widowed mother.

His real name was Victor Barnett, but as a fighter he was always known as Jimmy Grant.

Last spring Jimmy came to Atlanta. He fought several minor bouts here and attained instant popularity with followers of the ring. He was a bantam-weight, a quiet young fellow who seldom took the initiative in a conversation or an argument, but who was always ready with a cheery smile and a warm handshake for his friends.

One of the sad features of his untimely death—he was only twenty-three years old—was that the fight which killed him was the one he had hoped would make his reputation. It was his first big bout. Victory would have secured success.

So he trained for it hard, trained too hard. He was excited, nervous, overfit, when the battle started. "Base on the song. Yet this gritty little fighter stood up under his medicine for round after round, refusing to take the count so long as he could stand on his feet."

Jimmy Grant was never a quitter. He took the decision as he took everything. He sent him—courageously; for he had done his best. And now that the Great Referee has called Time on Jimmy Grant's last battle, he leaves behind him the unsullied record of one who never flinched on the firing line, one who lived the clean life of a gentleman and a fighter, who met death as he met life, with open heart and a smile.

MONEY IS NEEDED TO CLEAN MONUMENTS

S. R. Torman, H. M. Ashe and F. J. Paxton have been appointed by the Old Guard as a committee to raise money for the cleaning and rehabilitation of the McPherson and Walker monuments by the time the Shriners come to the city.

About $250 will be needed, and as the monuments are in need of attention, the committee requests Atlantians to come to their assistance.

The McPherson monument is just off of Moreland avenue, near the country line, and the Walker monument is about a half-mile distant on Glenwood avenue.

INJURED BOY ASKS FOR LONGER AMBULANCE RIDE

Foot Crushed Under Car Wheels, Child Wanted to Ride "Some More"

Slipping under the rear trucks of a southbound car on Kennedy avenue at Seventh street, little L. C. Gentle, four years old, son of Robert Gentle, 159 Jett street, had his right foot and ankle crushed entirely off late Thursday afternoon.

In spite of the terrible pain, the little fellow when taken to the Atlanta hospital in Greenberg & Bond's ambulance, did not want to get out, but asked the attendants to be allowed to "ride some more."

He talked to the ambulance attendants all the way to the hospital, telling them that he had "booked" a ride on the rear step of the car with several other boys, and that he had slipped and fallen under the rear wheels.

Trustees of State Institution Elect Officers and Discuss Needs

Dr. J. N. McClure, of Norcross, was elected president of the Georgia Tuberculosis sanitarium at a meeting of the board of trustees at the institution at Atlanta. Dr. I. H. Goss, of Athens, was chosen vice president; Dr. Jeff Davis, of Tooech, secretary, and Joseph A. McCord, of Atlanta, treasurer. Dr. William P. Parramore was re-elected superintendent.

Inadequate appropriation given by the state to carry on the work was discussed.

"The sanitarium receives only $20,000 annually from the state," said Rev. Graham Forrester, pastor of the First Baptist church at West Point, Ga., and a trustee of the sanitarium. "This is inadequate, and $75,000 would not be too much to meet the needs of the institution."

Society Brand Spring Suits

YOUNG men and men who stay young have come to regard the styles set by Society Brand Clothes as being assuredly correct—and rightly so.

There is a freshness, a spontaneity about them that is easily recognizable. This is so because their conception is the work of an acknowledged style-artist.

One of the main elements of good style is precision. The cut of the lapel, the front, the cuff, each of these must be chosen unerringly, for it is the little things that distinguish to the initiated real style from the mediocre.

You will find here the models delineated in this illustration. You will find pure wool, superior workmanship and finish, and lastly you will find style of such smartness and emphatic correctness as always shown in the famous Society Brand.

Men and Religion Bulletin No. 108Truth Triumphant

"Blessed Is He That Cometh in the Name of the Lord"
Matt. 21:9.

Crowds bearing palms.

Christ in the midst of the joyous, shouting throngs who greeted Him---

"Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord---

Despairing Pharisees waived to one another---

"Behold how you prevail nothing; lo, the world is gone after Him."

But leading citizens had gathered at the call of Caiaphas.

They said---

"If we leave Him thus alone, all people will believe on Him: and the Romans will come and take away our place and nation."

ONLY ONE OF THE MANY CIVIC GATHERINGS, WHERE FOR THE GOOD OF THE CITY AND NATION, MEN HAVE PLANNED TO KILL THE TRUTH.

They always fail.

Sacrifice principle for policy?

Behold the blindness of sin---

Caiaphas and his crew saw only a carpenter of Nazareth.

To them, His Gospel of Love, when confronted with the mailed fists of mighty Rome, became only folly. They thought themselves compelled to get rid of Jesus.

For business reasons---to save their city with their cash they crucified the Lord.

Instead of saving, they lost their lives, their wealth, their city, their all---The Romans came.

Caiaphas and Annas with Jerusalem fell. BUT THE CONQUERING CHRIST MOVES ON.

Oh man, beware!

Reject not the Truth.

You never gain---

You only ruin, when, for so-called business reasons, you seek to sacrifice God's Truth.

Immorality, greed and lawlessness, which ever demand the crucifixion of the truth---these invariably bring in their train sorrow and suffering.

All history proves---

The cities and civilizations which reject God's Law of Love inevitably fail and fall as did Jerusalem ages ago.

Your Lord---God's living Word has come.

What will you do with Jesus?

Not "Raised" with Yeast--

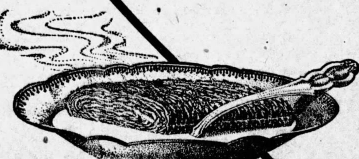

You can "raise" a loaf of white flour bread with yeast—but you can't "raise" healthy, robust American youngsters in that way. The best food for growing boys and girls is

Shredded Wheat

It contains no yeast, no fats, no chemicals of any kind—just pure whole wheat, steam-cooked, shredded and baked. The crisp, brown Biscuits are not only deliciously appetizing, but they encourage thorough chewing, which makes them better than porridges for growing youngsters. Ask your grocer.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Deliciously nourishing when eaten in combination with baked apples, stewed prunes, sliced bananas or canned or preserved fruits. Try toasted Triscuit, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon with butter, cheese or marmalade.

BANKERS, MERCHANTS, REAL ESTATE DEALERS AND MANUFACTURERS SEE GREAT FUTURE FOR ATLANTA

LEADERS IN EVERY CALLING ENTHUSIASTIC OVER BANK VICTORY

Increased Commercial Activity Seen in Government's Selection of City as Financial Center of the Southeast

MEANS MORE INDUSTRIES; HELPS THOSE HERE NOW

Senator Hoke Smith Given Large Share of Credit in Interventions What Institution Will Mean to Atlanta

Atlanta bankers, merchants, manufacturers, real estate men and citizens in every line of business are rejoicing over the selection of this city as the center of a regional reserve district by the United States government. All see in the selection great future for Atlanta and the section this city will serve. Interviews are being given by the leaders in which they tell in their own words how Atlanta feels about it.

It is one of the greatest victories ever won for Atlanta, and one of the most important events in the history of the southeast, said Colonel Robert J. Lowry, president of the Lower National bank and of the Clearing House association. "It is a great thing—a great thing."

Wm. L. Moore, who as president of the Commercial bank last year, indicated Atlanta's position as the financial center of the southeast, said that the nation but among financial centers of the world as one of the twelve big centers of the United States. It establishes us definitely in the eyes of the world, said he. "It places on Atlanta the seal of the government's endorsement. It stamps us as the industrial, distributing and financial center of the southeast."

Said W. J. Blalock, president of the Atlanta National bank: "This bank will enable us to make our financial needs. We can make ourselves independent of New York for the first time in history. It is the biggest thing that has happened in this city since the war."

"It think Georgia owes a great deal to Senator Smith," said W. J. Blalock. "He has done more for Georgia than any other man. He has put it on the map of the world. He has made it a great thing for Georgia. He has made it a great thing for Georgia."

"We have cause to be gratified very deeply," said R. E. Smith, president of the Commercial National bank and of the Clearing House association. "It is a great thing for Georgia. It is a great thing for Georgia. It is a great thing for Georgia."

"The wisdom of the organization committee in selecting Atlanta will be justified by the progress that this city can serve the territory allotted to it. It is another evidence of Atlanta's growth and power. It is a great thing for Georgia. It is a great thing for Georgia. It is a great thing for Georgia."

BURNS IN KANSAS FOR CLUE IN PHAGAN CASE

Detective Will Not Divulge
New Evidence Expected
Here on Saturday

The trail in the Mary Phagan murder case has led Detective William J. Burns from New York to Kansas City during the present week. It is admitted by his office here that the detective was in Kansas City Thursday, and his mission there was in connection with the Atlanta case. It is stated that Burns ascertained successfully the task which took him to Kansas City, and the nature of the work he did there is not divulged.

Burns is expected to return to Atlanta Saturday night. Whether or not his report will then be made is a matter of conjecture.

Dan S. Lehon, at present in charge of the probe for the Burns agency, and Guy W. Biddinger, who did much secret work on the case, are both said to have completed their work, and are ready with their reports. Therefore, it is possible that Burns will formulate and make public his final and final report soon after his arrival.

However, Burns has stated that he expects to interview the state's attorney, city detectives, and certain of the state's witnesses at the trial before he completely closes his probe, and this he has not yet done. The day before he left for New York Burns made an effort to hold a conference with Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey, but owing to other engagements the two men could not fit an hour, and Burns was unable to delay his trip for the postponed conference. Whether or not he still considers it necessary to interview the state's authorities is not known.

Guy Biddinger, who left Atlanta mysteriously as he came to the city, is now in Florida. The Journal has learned that the Burns agency has refused to divulge the reason for his trip to the southern state. It is said that Biddinger left here to find and interview C. Burton Platon, the state's witness, who has been indicted, according to the defense's affidavit, for the murder of Phagan. Biddinger was an important witness in the state's case, and it is said that Biddinger conducted an interview with him as necessary.

The criminal division of the superior court is expected to adjourn on Friday for two weeks in order that Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey can have time to prepare his answer to the defense's extraordinary motion for a new trial for the rank of Phagan.

While the attorneys for the defense of Phagan have been working constantly on the case, Solicitor General Dorsey has been engaged during each day in the trial and routine cases in the criminal court.

If court adjourns for two weeks the adjournment will probably go to Valdosta and do his work there.

AD MEN INSPECT IVY
TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

Following a luncheon at the Ansley hotel Thursday, the members of the Ad Men's club, including the following, met at the Ivy telephone exchange. The members of the club, who were fully explained by telephone experts and the ad men had an enjoyable and instructive visit.

George J. Yundt, chief engineer of the telephone company, made a fifteen-minute talk to the Ad Men on "Behind the Scenes in the Telephone Exchange."

They say one good turn deserves another. We have yet one more spring offering—a very splendid one—of which we haven't told you. And that's our subject today.

It's about the best "feeling" suit you ever put on. It is fine, that's why. A thing fine, feels and looks its fineness.

Come here and put it on and try it out for yourself. But see it first of course. You'll see trim English lines, patch pockets, graceful collar and lapels; waistcoat of athletic cut with patch pockets and black silk binding.

You'll see it in Cambridge gray and black, with white silk stripes, narrow and not too well defined. Also in blue with green stripes—very nobby.

TIME ARRIVES FOR REAL WORK IN BIG CAMPAIGN

Seven More Days for Candidates to Get Busy for Easter Distribution

Time is fading fast, and but seven short working days remain before the call of "time" puts an end to the campaign in the Journal's Big Easter Gift Distribution. It is eagerly expected, and with good reason, that the spirit of determination and "get there first" will be the dominant factor in the work now being done. Every candidate will be sure to get out and vigorously campaign, if there is any expectation of being returned a winner. The time is so short that there is no time to think, only time for real, earnest and sincere effort.

The most important fact of all for every candidate to bear in mind is that the campaign is not over, and will not be over until 10 o'clock p. m. on the night of Saturday, April 11. Until this time your efforts will bring you far greater returns than they have ever brought you before, or probably ever will again. Until this hour there is time for any candidate, by dint of hard work and determined work, to be returned a winner, and time for the too confident ones to lose out against more earnest workers.

No one has any right to be sure of success—only by "sticking to it" can they be sure of coming out on top. There is too much sincere effort being put forth, and too much real work will be done during these last important days for any one to say "I am certain of winning." The prizes will not be won until the last moment is over, and the last ballot deposited.

But success is bound to come to those who work earnestly and continue their efforts up to the closing minute. So

Let everybody who's glad to celebrate in Made-in-Atlanta Shoes

We'll fit you to a nice-a-tee race for each and every prize is going to be a close and exciting one, to judge by all present indications, and all would do well to heed this warning. DON'T LET UP IN YOUR EFFORTS UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK ON THE NIGHT OF APRIL 11 ARRIVES. There are many candidates who have only started to work, but who, by their determined and persevering work during these last days, are certain to press closely, if they do not actually win out over those who think their efforts up to this time have brought them success. There is need, and extreme need, for every bit of work that can be done and for every subscription that can possibly be secured.

This is the time to work if you never worked before, and if you do really work, and the finish finds you the winner of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GOLD, you will be thankful that you took this advice to allow nothing to stop your work during this last and all important week.

NEGROES' CAMP ORDERED OUTSIDE OF GALVESTON

GALVESTON, TEX., April 24.—Approximately 500 negroes who are employed here waiting for the steamer Curuthia to take them to Africa under the direction of "Chief" Alfred C. Bantley have been ordered to move outside the city limits before Saturday night. The negroes were issued by the city authorities after an inspection of two of their camps had been made and revealed them as unsanitary.

The negroes will establish a camp outside the city limits. They do not know where the Curuthia will arrive.

What Anne Rutenhouse Says

Paris.—Waistcoats are the height of fashion. This is to be expected when stripes and Italian capes and other sartorial fancies of the French Revolution are revived. They are not new; they appeared as late as last summer, and cherub even made fashionable a waistcoat blouse, made of sleeves in it so that it could be worn without a coat.

But these present affairs look as though they had been made by haberdasher. There is nothing feminine about them. Stripes are missing, sleeves are omitted, and collars are very high. One can buy them at the places where men go to get clothes, and as the women of today have as few curves as a plumed shad, the masculine waistcoat does very well.

All these shapes are showing ready-made ones in any color to suit the fancy or the frock. White linen ones are preferred for the warmer weather. Suede in various light shades is a fancy of the woman who always dresses differently from her neighbor. Such shapes as the Garter Lafayette have small imitation ones that have no backs but serve to fill in the front of the jacket. Here one can also buy masculine looking affairs that might have been worn by Beau Brummell. They are of plaid and heavy linen with two pockets at the waist line and a row of gilt buttons running straight down the front.

Striped Waistcoats in Fashion. Probably the most dashing of the accessories to the short coats are those made of broadly striped silks. There is in the street and in the room or in blue in two shades and yellow. There is no getting away from yellow, you know, so it is just as well to make up your mind to accept it.

Of one thing beware, however, if your suit is of a striped material, let the waistcoat be plain, and if you are young or old, thin or stout. Even if you are led away into a plaid silk hat, wear it only the quietest clothes.

Women Waistcoats' Good Style. Probably the best choice for the American to make of all the waistcoats offered her is one of white linen in a good quality. It will stand the wash tub and the iron, and be cool enough to go with a taffeta suit on the majorities of days. Those who live in climates too hot for any accessory like this in summer, should take advantage of the fashion at the present hour and touch up a spring suit with any kind of vest they like.

EMPEROR GIVES CHURCH PAINTING OF ST. STEPHEN

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 3.—Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria-Hungary, has presented to St. Stephen's Catholic church of McKeesport an oil painting of St. Stephen, fifth king of Hungary. The painting cost $10,000 and is the work of John P. Croll, of Budapest. St. Stephen is the oldest and probably the largest Hungarian church in the United States.

SLOOP DEFIANCE TO BE LAUNCHED BOW FIRST
Owner of Aspirant for Cup Honors Thinks It Means Luck

(By Associated Press.)
BATH, Me., April 3.—The sloop Defiance, under construction for the America's cup trials, will take the water bow first when she is launched on May 11. George M. Pynchon, managing director of the sloop syndicate, said this departure from the usual method of launching was a hobby of Designer Owen, who believed it would lessen the possibility of any accident to the hull. After the Defiance slides down the ways, three days will be required to set up her rigging. Her hollow spars of Oregon pine are on the way here and the sails are expected soon.

Like the other aspirants for the honor of meeting the Shamrock IV, the Defiance will have a center board with a estimated drop of eight feet.

Every Woman Should Wish to Look Her Best

Suffering Spoils Beauty!

Many women look old before their time, simply because worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, irregularities and weaknesses to which women are so subject have brought the haggard look, the dull eyes, the "crow's feet" which would mar any woman's charm.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (In Tablet or Liquid Form)

helps women to retain their youthful looks because it removes the cause of most of the troubles peculiar to women. It is a tonic—invigorating and health-restoring—prepared from native remedial plants under the direction of a physician especially learned in the ills and needs of women. It will help you to retain the looks of youth and the buoyant step and bright spirits you are so sure to lose unless the feminine organs are helped to perform their functions naturally.

For forty years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been used with satisfaction and benefit by thousands and thousands of women. Premier Goes to Scotland to Deliver Speech for His Election

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 3.—Premier Asquith received a great ovation when he departed from London today for his constituency of East Fife, Scotland. He is to deliver a speech there tomorrow in spite of the decision of the Unionists not to oppose his election.

Large crowds gathered at every stopping place where the premier received addresses from Liberal associations expressing the wish that "the electors of East Fife will send you back to parliament with redoubled authority to maintain the traditions of the army, the authority of the crown and the power of the people."

Braves Return Stinson Gets For Two Games With Crackers

Boston Team Arrives for Two Games Beginning Today. Visitors Have Won Two and Tied the Third—Last Big League Team to Play Here This Season

Following the departure of the Naps, who left this morning for Chattanooga, the Boston Braves return for another series of two games. The first game will be staged this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Manager Smith will probably select his hurlers from Price, Perryman or Lawrence, and two of these will probably be used.

On the recent trip to Macon, the Braves dropped one of the games of the series. They were defeated by the local entry, therefore, exert every effort to get a good loss in the first game of this series. These two games will mark the last appearance of a big league club here this season.

Next week John Gangel will bring his Rochester club for a winter week's entertainment. At last Saturday's game with the Crackers, the Braves were defeated by a score of 10 to 0.

In connection with the deal which sent Al Nelson to the Boston Braves, it is understood that the Braves have been offered to trade for the Dallas club. Otto did not think the price was in line, however, and turned the proposition down.

It is a practical certainty that there will be no other trades in the circuit this year. A local record was made by the Braves in their victory over the Crackers.

Jackets Play Today

Miss. College Techites Meet New Rivals With Changed Line-Up. Donaldson Out of Game. Start at 3:30

Georgia Tech and the University of Mississippi will cross bats at Grant field this afternoon beginning the second series of the season at 3:30.

The Yellow Jackets were defeated by the Auburn team last week in the first game of the series, but came back strong and took the second contest. This leaves the Jackets in the same standing in the championship race.

The local boys will present a different front to that of last week. Without a doubt, behind the bat with new second catcher, Burr will occupy first base with Tyler Morgan at second. Hill will hold down third, but Wooten has been shifted to shortstop in place of Donaldson, who is not in the game this week. The Tech team is especially weak with the stick, as the Jackets and Donaldson do not seem to be able to get their eye on the ball as yet.

Wooten is a good fielder and is also a good man with the willow, hence the hitting done against Alabama he should come to fielding, but Wooten has the edge on him in the other department. Just who will pitch is a question. Either Bryant, Witt or Roberts will be used in the opening game. They have all been going good so far this season, and with a warm day on tap they should be able to show some real stuff.

The visitors appear to have a strong team. They clean up with the University of Alabama Wednesday, the pitcher striking out twenty men. If he can go with that record, Alabama he should certainly romp on the local college, as the Tech team is weak with the stick at the present time. However, there still be no walkway. The Jackets have a young team, composed of some of the greatest fighters that ever won the batting crown. Two games will be played with this club, the other game starting at 3:30 Saturday.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The opening market storm on Monday by Little's trade interests here. One firm's purchase of 100,000 shares of the stock of the old crop. There is a question in the mind of some of the speculators as to whether it is still a short interest in May which is the real conflict in the market. It is the old crop. However, such a future position would not justify a sale and speculation on a diamond that series was Sanderson.

It is decidedly more interest being in the new crop and some of the speculators are willing to hold on to the new crop and December, which I think would be a better position than the old crop, communication houses and Wall street.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The opening market and the narrow fluctuations as the speculators are willing to hold on to the old crop and December before taking an active interest in the new crop. The old crop will probably advance. The new crop will probably decline. The old crop will probably advance. The new crop will probably decline. If the price in these issues would make me, especially 1, 1-Q.

committee by creating districts and locating banks in their own minds and announcing them as inside information. As a matter of fact, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Postmaster General Burleson and Senator Hobbs Smith were speculating as to whether Dallas and Atlanta would be designated. The committee trusted no one with the decision, in advance, and two hours before the announcement the general scheme might have been altered materially without violating promises. No banks were promised. Each case was settled on its merits as reflected by the arguments presented.

OTHER CITIES GIVEN BANKS. The Atlanta district comprises Georgia, Alabama and Florida, east Tennessee, western Mississippi and south, southern Louisiana.

Within the district are New Orleans, Nashville, Chattanooga, Knoxville, and also of course Birmingham and Knoxville, Mobile, Montgomery and Savannah.

The full list of cities which are to become reserve centers under the new plan was announced as follows: Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, Dallas, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago and San Francisco.

Other cities given branch banks at Kansas City and St. Louis. In the early stage with two banks located inside its borders.

Organization of the reserve system will follow at once upon the appointment of the federal reserve board members by President Wilson. The president is expected to announce his appointments soon.

OFFICIAL ANNUCMENT. The official announcement by the organization committee, describes the Atlanta district as follows:

District No. 6.—The states of Alabama, Georgia and Florida, and all that part of Tennessee located east of the western boundary of the following counties: Stewart, Houston, Wayne, Humphreys and Perry; all that part of Mississippi located south of the northern boundary of the following counties: Itasca, Sharkey, Yazoo, Kemper, Madison, Leflore and Bolivar; and all that part of the southeastern part of Louisiana east of the western boundary of the following counties: Assumption and Terrebonne with the city of Atlanta as the location of the federal reserve bank.

The district committee of national banks which have accepted the provisions of the federal reserve act. The capital stock of the federal reserve bank of Atlanta, on the basis of 6 per cent of the total capital stock of the district, will be $1,000,000.

And if there be added 6 per cent of the capital stock of the district state banks and trust companies which have applied for membership in the district, the total capital stock will be $1,400,000.

COMMITTEE STATEMENT. The statement of the federal reserve committee, announcing the selection of Atlanta and eleven other cities for regional banks, as given out yesterday, follows in full.

The regional reserve act directs the reserve bank organization committee to designate not less than eight nor more than twelve cities within each district where federal reserve banks shall be located, and to be known as federal reserve cities, to divide the continental United States, excluding Alaska, into districts, each of which shall contain only one of such federal reserve cities, and to apportion the districts with due regard to the convenience and customary course of business. The committee further directs that the districts may not necessarily be coterminous with any state or states.

In determining the reserve districts and in designating the cities within such districts where federal reserve banks shall be located, the organization committee has given full consideration to the important factors bearing upon the subject. The committee has held public hearings in eighteen of the leading cities of the United States, and from the Pacific and from the great lakes to the Gulf, and was materially assisted thereby in determining the districts and the reserve cities.

Every reasonable opportunity has been afforded applicant cities to furnish evidence to support their claims as locations for federal reserve banks.

More than 200 cities, through their clearing house associations, chambers of commerce, and other representatives, were heard. Of these, thirty-seven cities asked to be designated as the headquarters of a federal reserve bank.

The majority of the organization committee, including its chairman and the secretary of agriculture, were present at all hearings, and stenographic reports of the proceedings were made for more deliberate consideration. Independent investigations were made, through the treasury department, and the preference of each bank as to the location of the federal reserve bank with which it desired to be connected was ascertained by an independent card ballot addressed to each of the 7,146 national banks throughout the country which had formally assented to the provisions of the federal reserve act.

Among the many factors which governed the committee in determining the respective districts and the selection of the cities which have been chosen were:

First.—The ability of the member banks within the district to provide the minimum capital of $4,000,000 required for the federal reserve bank, on the basis of 6 per cent of the capital stock and surplus of member banks within the district.

Second.—The mercantile, industrial and financial connections existing in each district and the relations between various portions of the district and the city selected for the location of the federal reserve bank.

Third.—The probable ability after the provisions of the federal reserve act shall have gone into effect, to meet the legitimate demands of business, whether normal or abnormal, in accordance with the spirit and provisions of the federal reserve act.

Fourth.—The fair and equitable division of the available capital for the federal reserve banks among the districts created.

Fourth.—The fair and equitable division of the available capital for the federal reserve banks among the districts created.

Fifth.—The general geographical situation of the district; transportation lines and facilities for speedy communication between the federal reserve bank and all portions of the district.

Sixth.—The population, area and prevalent business activities of the district, whether agricultural, manufacturing or commercial; its record of growth and development in the past, and its growth in the future.

In determining the several districts, the committee has endeavored to follow state lines as closely as practicable, and where it has found necessary to divide, the division has been along lines which are believed to be most convenient and advantageous for the district affected.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD. The statement of subscriptions by banks will be spread over many months, but in the meantime President Wilson is expected to name members of the board. The committee expects to say that owing to the fact that the bank will take some time, no immediate announcement will be made. He said an announcement may not be made for a month or longer.

In a supplemental statement the committee gave the following statistics used in determining the cities and districts:

No. 1, area in square miles 64,465; population 4,557,441; No. 2, area in square miles 49,170; population 3,113,717; No. 3, area in square miles 29,465; population 1,519,217; No. 4, area in square miles 112,595; population 7,861,022; No. 5, area in square miles 17,815; population 820,913; No. 6, area in square miles 223,560; population 1,650,641; No. 7, area in square miles 178,240; population 1,320,385; No. 8, area in square miles 146,474; population 7,745,611; No. 9, area in square miles 47,220; population 2,74,893; No. 10, area in square miles 200,440; population 6,308,420; No. 11, area in square miles 404,526; population 5,210,251; No. 12, area in square miles 692,453; population 5,239,302.

According to this statement there will be at least 7,548 banks of all sorts members of the system, with total capital and surplus of $1,331,483,395. Their 6 per cent subscriptions would amount to $169,929,092, according to the committee's figures.

Healey Building May Be Home of Regional Bank. It is too early yet to say anything official about the location of the regional bank, but it is possible that it will take space on the ground floor of the Healey building.

This possibility is given considerable color by the fact that the building management is offering for lease the space on the ground floor, although it is accepting leases for the rest of the space. Boca floor offers have been made for the ground floor space by established concerns here, but all have been turned down.

There are 260 feet of frontage on Forsyth street and 100 on Walton and popular streets, all or any part of which the management is in a position to lease to the government.

It is known that negotiations have been made in connection with this space, and it doesn't seem likely that the building management would lose time in turning down good offers for space unless it had pretty definite assurances that the bank would take it.

Mr. Healey himself said Friday that he was too early yet to talk about the proposition.

A. P. Liebman, who handles the lease of the building, said the same thing, but admitted that the bank could be accommodated with any kind of space it wanted.

The bank will lease its quarters temporarily at least. Even if its own building be built and equipped one before the currency law went into effect.

report to General Carranza, was wiped out by death, wounds, capture or flight. The federal forces, under General Madero, the federal part of the army, were defeated by the forces of Carranza, who was in a position to take the city.

Then by his successful campaign of the federal forces, Carranza was able to take the city of Torreon, and to establish his headquarters there.

It was but a little over a year ago that he started out from a village near Torreon, with two companions, and began his campaign of conquest.

He had a small force of men, but he was a brilliant strategist, and he was able to win the support of the people of Torreon, and of the people of the surrounding districts.

He was able to win the support of the people of Torreon, and of the people of the surrounding districts, and he was able to win the support of the people of the surrounding districts, and he was able to win the support of the people of the surrounding districts.

It is money and a meagre supply of beans, coffee and sugar. The horses at the time were not sold for, and Villa first came out capturing this city three months ago, and to repay the lives of the men who were "horrified."

General Pablo Gonzalez, for months has been the federal forces at Torreon, and now that Carranza has taken the city, the federal forces will evacuate these points and attempt to retreat to Tampico, the seaport of Tamaulipas. This state is sprinkled with rebel troops all along the line of retreat, which makes it evident that the federal forces are not in a position to hold the city.

Never in all its history has this state been so nearly and with enthusiasm as it did when a scout messenger from military headquarters ran through the streets shrieking that Torreon had fallen. Drunk with elation, men embraced each other wherever they met. Bells in the 300-year-old mission of Guadalupe were set ringing loudly and faster than ever they have rung for religious purposes. Rich and poor soldiers woke from their sleep in the town's many barracks to cheer. Then, stirred by a common impulse, their rifles were turned loose into the air.

GENERAL VILLA'S MESSAGE. General Villa's telegram to General Carranza, announcing his victory at Torreon, follows:

Torreón, Coahuila, Mexico, April 2, 1914. General Venustiano Carranza, Supreme Chief of the Constitution: In this moment the remnants of the federal forces are leaving Torreon in flight, after eleven days of terrible fighting, in which we lost 1,000 wounded and 500 killed.

The federal forces, who were the number of bodies burned, must have been over 1,000 killed. Their number of wounded I am unable to estimate. Our forces have full possession of Torreon. I regret to announce that among the wounded were General Ysaac Robles and General Calles. I congratulate and salute you with respect and esteem that I have always had for you. Your subordinate.

GENERAL FRANCISCO VILLA. "Commander-in-Chief of the constitutional forces of Chihuahua."

Return of Lind to Mexico. Interest in Mexican Policy. WASHINGTON, April 2.—An announcement of the prospective departure for the United States of John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, devoted entirely to the current trend of the Washington government's policy toward the southern republic.

For the last few weeks, officials have pointed to the battle of Torreon as likely to furnish an index of the future, but the result as well as the use of military or diplomatic situation as respects the strength of the two factions.
